The New Orleans papers of the 28th, publish the following despatch from this city .-It illustrates some of the errors which creep into a statement in travelling a thousand or so miles by telegraph: -Great Excitement in Virginia-The Lincoln

Banner Raised-Troops Ordered Out. ALEXANDRIA, Va., July 28.—The State has been thrown into a perfect state of excitement on account of news received from the town of Ocasgua, in regard to a Black Republican movement. It appears that a number of Black Republicans entered the town of Ocoqua, having in hand the Lincoln and Hamlin banner, and shouting at a high rate.

The people were driven to madness by this movement, and steps were immediately taken to free the town of these men. Letcher, upon hearing this intelligence ordered the troops out to quell any disturbance which might occur, and protect the Black Republicans. (? The order of Gov. Letcher caused General Hatlen to resign the command of the troops. Further troubles are anticipated.

A TRIBUTE TO AMERICAN MISSIONARIES .-At the late London anniversary, the Earl of Shaftsbury paid the following tribute to the American missionaries:

"I do not believe that in the whole history of missions, I do not believe that in the history of diplomacy, or in the history of any negotiations carried on between man and man, we can find anything to equal the wisdom, the soundness, and the pure evangelieal truth of the body of men who constitute the American mission. I have said it twenty times before, and I will say it again, for the expression appropriately conveys my meaning-that they are a marvellous combination of common sense and piety.' Every man who comes in contact with these missionaries speaks in praise of them. Persons in authority and persons in subjection all speak in their favor, travellers speak well of them; and I know of no man who has ever been able to bring a single valid objection against that body. There they stand, tested by years, tried by their works, and exemplified by their fruits; and I believe it will be found that these American missionaries have done more toward upholding truth and spreading day, July 30th, MARY CATHERINE, aged 42 the gospel of Christ in the East than any other body of men in this or any other age.
